Your Gateway to Italian Citizenship and Visas

At Italian Citizenship Assistance (ICA), our mission is to help you navigate the path to Italian citizenship and the visas that allow you to live, work, and study in Italy and across the European Union. Whether your goal is to become an Italian citizen or to obtain the right visa, we guide you every step of the way, helping you access the benefits of life in Italy and the EU, including high-quality healthcare, affordable education, and unrestricted travel.

With offices in Rovigo (Italy), Los Angeles, Dallas, New York City, and the Republic of San Marino, ICA is the ideal partner for individuals seeking Italian citizenship by descent (Jure Sanguinis), marriage (Jure Matrimonii), or residency, as well as those exploring visa options to live and work in Italy.

Our team includes dual citizenship experts, attorneys, genealogists, and translators, all specialized in Italian citizenship and immigration law. In collaboration with our law firm in Rovigo and associates in New York City and Los Angeles, we provide comprehensive services at competitive rates to help you successfully obtain dual citizenship, an Italian passport, or the appropriate visa.

From document procurement to translations and legal filings, we manage all the steps of the citizenship or visa process, including:

- Obtaining Italian vital records for your ancestors or family members
- Procuring U.S. or foreign documents and official translations into Italian
- Guiding you through the full application or petition process in Italy or abroad

Whether you need a full-service package or a tailored solution based on your unique situation, ICA makes it simple to achieve your goals.

Our services are available to citizens of the U.S., U.K., Australia, and other countries, whether you are living at home or abroad, including within the EU.*

CITIZENSHIP THROUGH A FEMALE ANCESTOR

Under the Italian Law Italian-born women, and women of Italian descent, could only transmit Italian citizenship to their children born after 1948. Recently a trial case challenged this law as discriminatory and those applicants who have a case falling in the this category can now attain Italian citizenship by starting a lawsuit before the Italian Courts. Start With a Free Initial Consultation

Start with a free telephone consultation! We provide a free preliminary consultation with an Italian expert in dual citizenship (fluent in English) designed to answer all of your questions in a clear and concise manner. The helpful information that you will receive will allow you to determine if you qualify for Italian citizenship or Italian visa and to move forward in the application process with clarity and confidence, better deciding which service you need. After this introductory call it is possible to request a live consultation via Zoom.

BOOK NOW

PLEASE NOTE:

During our first consultation call these are the type of questions you will be asked by our Italian citizenship expert:

- Date of birth of all your family members, including your Italian ancestors (if you do not know the exact date, the year or an approximate year is a good starting point)
- Place and date for Birth, Marriage and Death events for all your family members including the Italian "Comune" of origin.
- Information regarding your ancestor's naturalization (if you know it).
- An overview of your personal and financial documentation may also be requested, as this information can be relevant in assessing eligibility and determining the most appropriate pathway forward (for visas only).

Anthony's citizenship application in Rovigo

I spent quite a long time gathering documents from the U.S. side and originally considered pursuing citizenship through the consulates in the U.S. However, I wanted to move as fast as possible and get to know Italy in a deeper way, so I opted to take the 'live-in-Italy' path and moved to Rovigo in May…

Benefits of Italian Citizenship

- The ability to work, reside and study in Italy and across the 27 EU member states (e.g. Spain, France, Germany, Netherlands etc.) without the need of a Visa. EU citizens are often prioritized over people from outside the EU for many professional and educational opportunities.
- A simplified and more cost-effective process to purchase properties in Italy.
- Tax-Free import of vehicles (car, trucks etc.) directly from the US to Italy
- The possibility to automatically transfer citizenship to any children you might have under 18 years of age.
